

Policy of H&S

Trelleborg is committed to protecting the health and safety of each employee. We believe that all occupational injuries and illnesses are preventable. There will be no compromise of an individual's well being in anything we do. The safety culture to help our employees realize a healthy, injury-free environment is a shared responsibility.

- Management personnel are responsible for the leadership to the Safety and Health.
- Supervisors are responsible for developing the proper attitudes toward safety and for ensuring that all operations are performed with the utmost regard for the safety and health of all personnel involved.
- Employees are responsible for wholehearted, genuine cooperation with all aspects of the safety culture; including compliance with all rules and regulations and for continuously practicing safety while performing their duties.

Continuing support of this effort is the responsibility of every employee. We will lead the Trelleborg team to ensure that we protect the well being of every employee.
